Staff Changes

In January we said farewell to our latest Trainee to graduate Alice Felber. Alice has completed her Certificate Three in Business through Moora CY O'Conner Institute.

We have welcomed back Cindy Brassington, after a long break away on personal leave. It is great to have such a connected and community minded person in our the team.

Shop Front

Floral & Gold currently have on display and range of beautiful gifts perfect for Valentines Day. Come into the centre for up to 50% Plates, range of teas, cake stands, High Tea cook-books and all the crockery needed for the perfect HIGH TEA.

The CRC has been developing a Shop Front project that will increase the locally produced products for sale in the CRC. This month we have added Ann Murray's beautifully crafted cards feature country scenes and WA native flora and fauna. Betty O'Callaghan's book Common Wildflowers of Coorow, Betty's son Chris O'Callaghan who works for West Midlands Groups designs and writes the text.
